Opening Weekend

Each year the college hosts a variety of activities for the incoming freshman and their family. The first day the students are lined up outside the David B. Sykes Gate on Market Street where the students will process through the gates and begin their college career. This year's Freshman Convocation brought a familiar face to Lycoming as the speaker was alumni, David Argall '80, who used his humor to enlighten the incoming students to life at Lycoming.

The largest freshman class in a decade with 420 students. While 75 percent of the class is from Pennsylvania, 20 states and 6 foreign countries are also represented. A little less than 10 percent are commuter students, reflecting the residential character of Lycoming College. The class is fairly evenly divided between men and women with slightly more women.

Rodman Berfield, Emily Lubold, Kelly Howerter and Jackie Gauer stand ready to open the gates to the incoming freshman class.

...rocked their way into the new recreation center with music that tested the structure's soundness. Both bands brought a style of music to campus that hasn't been seen here for a few years. The crowd pushed itself forward in an effort to mosh and there was occasional body surfing, which campus and concert security did their best to control. Nearly 2,000 students and community members flocked to the recreation center to hear them perform.

Breaking Benjamin, a semi-local band, is composed of lead-singer Benjamin Burnley and guitarist Aaron Fink both from Selinsgrove; Mark James Klepaski from Wilkes-Barre and a new drummer who is from California.

The band coordinated a show, "Rockfest" two summers ago in Liverpool. This show ended up to be much more successful than planned and helped the band advance to where they are today.

Fall Concert Rocks

Kirk Cameron Does 360 of TV star Kirk Cameron shared his thoughts and feelings about Christianity with a large crowd gathered in D-001 during his Oct. 27 visit to Lycoming College. Cameron's visit was part of the fall symposium, "Religious Pluralism in 21st Century America." The event was arranged by Cynthia Betz. Once an atheist living in Hollywood, Cameron is now a devout Christian and the host and producer of the "Way of the Master" television series. During his speech, Cameron discussed his conversion to Christianity, which came about because he attended a church service with his girlfriend. He also spoke about how his life has changed for the better since his conversion.

Mike Seaver

Jazzman's: The Starbucks of Lycoming

In the fall, Pennington Lounge had an atmosphere change as the old Canteen lunch/snack bar was replaced by a new and lively cafe. Jazzman's Café is a hot coffee bar operated by Sodexo USA, the food service company which also manages all of Lycoming College's food service operations. Even though the old snack bar left, someone remained behind, Glenda. Glenda has been a staple in the snack bar in Pennington and many students were afraid when Jazzman's arrived, she would be gone.

There are now more than 100 Jazzman's Café locations in the U.S. Last year, it was named the winner of the prestigious Hot Concepts! Award sponsored by Nation's Restaurant News and Tyson's Food Inc., that identifies innovative restaurant concepts.

The café serves a selection of Seattle's Best Coffee®, espresso drinks, teas, soups and salads, specialty sandwiches and a unique offering of fresh bakery items.

Thanksgiving Dinner--

Many people know the stress of trying to organize large thanksgiving dinners, but not many people can understand the challenges of trying to seat and serve 1,500 guests. In order to solve this not-so-everyday problem, Lycoming College asks faculty and staff to chip in and help serve the annual Thanksgiving Dinner for the Lycoming College student body on the last full day of cafeteria service before the break.

The Thanksgiving dinner, complete with roasted turkey, mashed potatoes, gravy, stuffing, green beans, and of course the most essential element of Thanksgiving, pumpkin pie is served to the college students by members of the faculty and staff. Students get a change of pace because the dinner is sit down rather than cafeteria style, and each table is complete with both tablecloth and candles, to set the mood.

As the students enter the cafeteria, they are seated by the Maitre D's for the evening, Dr. James Douthat, President, and Dr. John Piper, Jr., Dean of the College. But for some the students, the best part of the meal begins as they meet their wait person, who is apt to be their biology professor. Dr. Mel Zimmerman, Dr. David Franz, and Dr. Jeff Newman, all in the science department, are just a few of the volunteers for the dinner.

Students can either make reservations or simply walk into the dinner. This year, Lycoming College held the Thanksgiving dinner on Monday, November 22, from 4:30 p.m. to 6:00 p.m. Students were encouraged to come ready to stuff themselves with a full Thanksgiving Day dinner!

Students Relaxing

It doesn't matter what time of year it is. Students at Lycoming always find something to do to entertain themselves, whether it's sledriding in Montoursville, sunbathing on the quad or playing volleyball by Forrest or East Hall.

Tsunami Benefit Concert

Saxophonist and jazz journalist Sascha Feinstein organized a jazz concert on , Tuesday, January 18th, that raised $3,550 to aid victims of the tsunami in Southeast Asia.

“This concert was assembled quickly, but we hoped for considerable contributions,” said Feinstein, editor of “Brilliant Corners,” the only publication in the country that centers on jazz-related poetry, fiction, and non-fiction. He plays alto, soprano and tenor saxophone along with clarinet.

Feinstein is a professor of English at Lycoming College and co-director of the College’s creative writing program.

Feinstein was joined by “regional jazz all-stars” including saxophonist Dick Adams, whose extensive resume includes a “who’s who” in pop, jazz and Motown.

Grammy-winning drummer Steve Mitchell has played drums for The Joffrey Ballet, Blue Mitchell, Van Morrison, Esther Phillips and Lou Rawls as well as the television soundtracks for “Charlie Brown” and “Garfield the Cat.”

He backed keyboardist Steve Adams and bassist Charles “Chalie” Holmes, both of whom add flavors respective of Chick Corea and Stanley Clarke.

Everyone Came To Relay For Life Looking For HOPE:

"H" is for Hope, which is everlasting.

"O" is for Oneness, because we all stand united in the fight against this dreaded disease.

"P" is for Power, because that is what we have, as part of the more than 4000 events across our beautiful nation!

"E" is for Eradication, because we will ERADICATE cancer and make it a distant memory!

One day soon, everyone will read a different story, one that does not talk of HOPE, but of a CURE:

"C" is for Cancer, the disease that has joined Polio, Smallpox and Cholera as largely a thing of the past.

"U" is for Us, the people who were a big part of making this possible.

"R" is for Remember, because though we have eradicated this disease, we still remember those who have battled this demon.

"E" is for Eradicate – No one gets cancer anymore! We have won this battle!

THANK YOU FOR MAKING CANCER A MEMORY.

THANK YOU FOR RAISING OVER $1 BILLION DOLLARS AT RELAY FOR LIFE TO MAKE THIS A REALITY.

THANK YOU FOR HELPING US REACH THE FINISH LINE. WE HAVE FOUND A CURE!

But Until that day, we all battle on. We all unite against cancer.

We all walk thru the night, because "THERE IS NO FINISH LINE UNTIL WE FIND A CURE"

"THE EMPTY TABLE"

We call your attention to the small table that occupies a place of dignity and honor. It is set for one, symbolizing the fact that some of our loved ones are missing from this gathering....The chair is empty. Many of those who fought the battle with cancer are no longer with us, but rather than mourning their loss, we choose to celebrate their life....The table is small, symbolizing the frailty of a single patient, sometimes alone in the fight against his or her disease. The tablecloth is white, symbolic of the medical profession: doctors, nurses, and researchers who help fight the battle for life. The single rose in the vase signifies the enduring love of their families and friends and the strength of a patients' will to fight the disease that ultimately claimed many of them....The glass is inverted in memory of those people who are not here to join our celebration of successes....But, the candle represents the light of hope that lives in the hearts of all of us — hope represented by cancer survivors and the hope for a cure discovered as a result of the detailed work of the medical profession made able through funds generated through events such as Relay For Life.

Relay Activities:

The Survivor Walk:

The Relay for Life raised over $6,068. UCM was the number one fund-raising team with $726.76 and Student Senate was second with $722.00. Lindsay Martin was the number one individual fund-raiser with $498.00 and Jackie Gauer was the second highest earning $356.00.

Circle K's Blood Drive:

Each year the organization sponsors two blood drives handled by the American Red Cross. The drives usually last about six hours and are held in Pennington Lounge.

The Campus Sings Out...

Each semester the Campus Activities Board sponsors a karaoke night in Jack's Place in Wertz Center. Sometimes things can get a little wild and other times, a little blase. In addition to the CAB sponsoring karaoke nights, other groups on campus, such as sororities, fraternities and service organizations use the event as a way to let the campus let loose.

Annual Search Retreat

United Campus Ministries sponsors this retreat each year in the beginning of the spring semester. Roughly 30 students attend the retreat. According to the UCM website, it is an off-campus spring retreat. Search is about your life as you look at some of your conflicts, struggles, and even some of that "baggage" that you can't leave behind. Search is about love...a love of neighbor, a love of self, and most importantly, God's love for each of us.

Spring Concert a Hit

Howie Day and Starting Line both have different sounds to their songs.

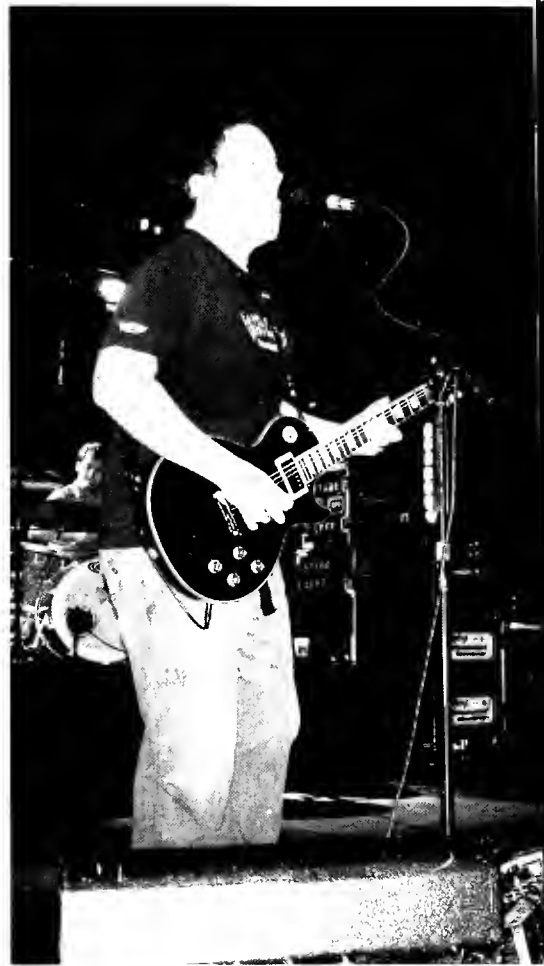

On The Starting Line's titled debut, "Say It Like You Mean It", the Pennsylvania-based quartet began where the best bands start off—with a fully realized sound all its own. The band started off as a small group of guys getting together to play. Eventually one thing lead to another and two of the members sped through school in order to carry on with the band.

The 23-year-old songwriter, Howie Day, hails from Bangor, Maine. While he continues to explore the themes of love, regret and loss in his lyrics, his music takes on an additional dimension as he incorporates a 25-piece orchestra to "Numbness for Sound," "I'll Take You On," "Collide," and "She Says." Writing on piano for the first time on an album, Day adds a new element to "End of Our Days" and "Trouble in Here."

Theater

The Theatre Department produces as many as 10-15 productions each year, including classics, musicals, and cutting-edge new drama. Students from all majors, came together on the Mary L. Welch Theater this year, to put on shows like Sweeney Todd, Proof and The Laramie Project. Four shows are produced in the Mary L. Welch Theatre, an intimate thrust stage with state-of-the-art lighting and sound systems. The Downstage Theatre, our flexible black-box space, is home to a variety of student-produced shows.

LEADERSHIP RETREAT

Each spring the Office of Student Programs and Leadership Development offers a highly interactive experience that helps campus organizations gain a competitive edge. The retreat features a plethora of training seminars that nourish the mind, body, and spirit of the student organizations. The "Student Leaders Retreat," usually scheduled for March at Camp Susque, is free and also provides food, transportation, lodging, and all seminar training materials. The "Student Leaders Retreat" is open to all Lycoming College students who are leaders of a recognized student organization or who are pursuing leadership positions.

Accepted

Students Day

Students accepted into Lycoming for the 2005-2006 academic year gathered at the Accepted Students Day on April 3, 2005. This year the admissions department chose to hold the event in the new recreation center. The students walked the track going from table to table of clubs, organizations and sports on campus to get an idea of what they might want to join in the coming year. The college provided many tasty beverages and snacks for all to enjoy.

DANCE CLUB PROVIDES WIDE VARIETY

The Lycoming Dance Show played to a packed house, including people standing in the back at Clarke Chapel.

Hip-hop featured the songs, "Only You" by Ashanti and "1,2 Step" by Ciara. Swing did the songs "Mr. Pinstripe Suit" and "Maddest Kind of Love," both by Big Bad Voodoo Daddy. Ballet/lyrical did the song "Over and Over" by Nelly and Tim McGraw. Dance team did an assortment of songs, including "Disco Inferno" by 50 Cent, and "Bombs over Baghdad" by Outcast. The half-way point was country line, a new class this semester. They did the songs "Callin' Baton Rouge" by Garth Brooks, "Redneck Woman" by Gretchen Wilson, and "Save a Horse, Ride a Cowboy" by Big & Rich. Tap did the songs "You Got It" and "Hangin' Tough" both by New Kids on the Block. Latin did the songs "Meclavaste con tu cruz" by Chenoa and "Two to Tango" by Son of Four. The infamous jazz did the songs "Lose my Breath" by Destiny's Child and "Rumors" by Lindsay Lohan. The teachers did the songs "Do Somethin" by Britney Spears, "Hey Young Girl" by Lloyd, and "Yeah" by Usher.

Senior dance teachers graduating this year are Lauren Detwiler, Ashley Rowe, Krystal Ray, and Erica Walsh.

Jazz teachers: Senior Krystal Ray and Sophomore Melany McGillivray (Freshman Emma Bailey & Amanda Kochanasz also assisted).

Greek Week Almost Loses

The week's events began with the banner competition. Each house created a banner depicting Greek life and unity at Lyco. The winner of this year's competition was Alpha Sigma Tau with their "Wonderful World of Greek Week" banner. Each house was depicted by a Disney character. Following AST were Phi Kappa Psi and Alpha Xi Delta (second place tie) and Alpha Rho Omega and Gamma Delta Sigma (third place tie).

Tuesday night was the Volleyball tournament in the Rec. Center. Perhaps the biggest defeat of the night was Tau Kappa Epsilon unexpectedly conquering Phi Kappa Psi. However Tau Kappa Epsilon was unable to take home first place. Instead, Lambda Chi Alpha was the overall winner, defeating Beta Phi Gamma (the first place team for the sororities).

Wednesday night the infamous Chapel skits were held after originally being eliminated from the week's activities. After many debates the skits were re-entered into the fun, but competitive week, but because the skits were not in the original schedule, many houses felt limited by the new restrictions decided on for the event to take place. Tau Kappa Epsilon was the overall and fraternity winner of the night with their "Wizard of Oz" theme. The brothers received a standing ovation at the end of their performance after they led a "Ding Dong the Witch is Dead" sing-along. AST was first place among the sororities. The skit continued to have the house's Greek Week Disney theme. The order of winners for fraternities was: Tau Kappa Epsilon, Kappa Delta Rho, Lambda Chi Alpha, Phi Kappa Psi and Phi Mu Delta. The order of winners for sororities was: Alpha Sigma Tau, Alpha Rho Omega, Alpha Xi Delta and Gamma Delta Sigma (tie) and Beta Phi Gamma.

Thursday night the houses filled up the stands in the Rec. Center to watch the pool skits. Each house performed a short skit or dance outside the pool and then participated in synchronized swimming inside the pool. The order of winners for fraternities was: Phi Kappa Psi, Phi Mu Delta, Kappa Delta Rho, Tau Kappa Epsilon and Lambda Chi Alpha. The order of winners for the sororities was: Beta Phi Gamma, Alpha Sigma Tau, Gamma Delta Sigma, Alpha Rho Omega and Alpha Xi Delta.

Friday afternoon completed the week's festivities with the annual field events. The houses gathered at the intramural field for the games. Houses competed for first place in events including: three-legged race (Beta Phi Gamma and Kappa Delta Rho), wheelbarrow race (winners: Phi Kappa Psi and Alpha Xi Delta), dizzy bat (winners: Alpha Xi Delta and Phi Kappa Psi), tug-of-war (winners: Alpha Rho Omega and Kappa Delta Rho), egg-toss (winners: Gamma Delta Sigma and Lambda Chi Alpha), keg-toss (winners Alpha Rho Omega and Kappa Delta Rho) and pie relay (winners: Alpha Sigma Tau and Phi Kappa Psi).

The winners were announced at the Greek Week awards banquet. Taking home the overall winner for sororities and fraternities was Alpha Sigma Tau with a total of 302 points. The sororities followed up with Beta Phi Gamma (260), Gamma Delta Sigma (236), Alpha Rho Omega (213) and Alpha Xi Delta (205). The fraternity winner was Phi Kappa Psi (289) followed by: Kappa Delta Rho (262), Tau Kappa Epsilon (239), Phi Mu Delta (191) and Lambda Chi Alpha (177).

seniors waited for one thing...

The seniors at Lycoming may have followed the same path when they chose the college they wanted to obtain their degree from; however, that path contained many other forks in the road that gave them a chance to explore, experiment and make friendships and decisions that will last a lifetime.

Crazy Times

But, hey it's college right?!?

senior cruise

Twenty six graduates and the cruise advisor, Jeff Klein, headed for a four day cruise to the Western Caribbean. The group flew out of Newark Airport early May 2 and arrived in Miami, FL where their adventure would begin. The cruise ship, Fascination departed Miami and headed toward Key West, FL, where they arrived Tuesday morning and spent most of the day on shore. They shipped out from Key West that evening heading for the Gulf of Mexico and Cozumel, Mexico. The next day was spent in Cozumel where individuals parasailed, shopped, snorkeled and enjoyed their Mexican adventure, capping the night off with dinner at the famous Carlos and Charlies. Each day the group enjoyed the activities on the boat such as the Piano Lounge, Casino, Night Clubs and shops. Thursday was the group's day at sea on their return trip and the weather wasn't too sunny, but many in the group laid out in hopes of some rays. Friday morning, the group ported in Miami where they then headed to the airport to get lunch and get ready for their flight back home. Each person enjoyed the cruise and had different experiences to share.

SENIOR ART SHOW

It's the last hurrah for senior art majors at Lycoming College. The Senior Show, which ran from April 8 to May 8, featured the best works of 16 senior art majors. Works included oil paintings, photography, drawing and sculpture along with a number of multi-media works.

The opening reception, which was open to the public, ran from 4:00 to 6:00 p.m. in the Art Gallery on the first floor of Snowden Library.

Senior Celebration

On Saturday, March 23, the seniors were treated to Italian gourmet, socializing and memory watching and/or telling. Each of the graduating seniors were invited to DiSalvo's Restaurant off the corner of campus to sit and reminisce, have a few drinks from the cash bar, and listen to a guest speaker talk about what it's like after college. After everyone enjoyed their meal, listened to the speaker and watched their President, Pam Tipler give their class gift, the seniors enjoyed a slideshow put together by Tipler as a way to put everyone's time at Lycoming into a nutshell with many pictures.

Ceremonies

Dr. G. Edwin Zeiders Jr.

Dr. G Edwin Zeiders Jr., president and chief executive officer of United Theological Seminary in Dayton, Ohio, spoke at Lycoming College's baccalaureate, which was held in the Lamade gymnasium.

Zeiders is President and Chief Executive Officer of United Theological Seminary in Dayton, Ohio. United is one of the seminaries of the United Methodist Church. Lycoming College has sent students to United and a number of United graduates are pastors in the Central and Eastern Pennsylvania Conferences of the United Methodist Church. Zeiders served in the Central Pennsylvania Conference from 1973 as a pastor, district superintendent, and conference council director, until 2000, when he became President of United.

Zeiders has helped United through a difficult financial period, strengthened the faculty and is now providing the leadership for the relocation of the seminary to fulfill its mission and ministry for the 21st century.

Zeiders has published "Studies in the Gospel of John: A New Life Mission Workbook" and is a contributing editor to "Keeping in Touch," a periodical of United Theological Seminary. He is a professor of spiritual development and leadership at United.

Karissa Brown

The student speaker, Karissa Brown, was a senior mathematics major with a teaching certificate at the secondary level. During her four years as a resident student of Lycoming, she has been active in various clubs and organizations, some of which include: Alpha Xi Delta, Circle K, Varsity Swim Team, and working as an academic tutor. Brown hopes to find a job in the mathematics field, and pursue her master's degree.

This year's commencement speech was based upon a poem, "The Bridge Builder" by Will Allen Dromgoole. It reflects upon teachers — family members, friends, professors, coaches and world-renowned intellectuals, whom have aided many along the path of life.

It challenges graduating seniors to step into the role of teacher and guide younger generations toward many of the same successes they have experienced, Brown explained.

Lycoming College has been selected as one of 200 "Colleges of Distinction." The colleges selected for inclusion in this guide have four things in common. They all focus on the teaching of undergraduates; they have great teaching as evidenced by a variety of innovative learning experiences; they offer a vibrant campus community with many opportunities for personal development; and they offer their students excellent preparation for either graduate school or employers.

Dr. William G. Dever 2005 Commencement Speaker

William Dever is referred to by many as the “dean of American archaeology in Palestine and the Near East” for his outstanding and long-lasting contributions to the field of archaeology. In the next couple of years, when he completes the last volume of the Gezer excavations final report, he will become the first American archaeologist in history to publish a complete and comprehensive final report of a major dig in the Near East.

Dr. Dever is Professor Emeritus of Near Eastern Archaeology and Anthropology at the University of Arizona, where he founded the Department of Near Eastern Studies. He has been active in the field of archaeology since 1962, having served—the following list is greatly abbreviated—as the Director of the Harvard Semitic Museum—Hebrew Union College Excavations at Gezer, the Khirbet el-Qôm, Jebel Qa’aqir excavations, and the Tell el-Hayyat excavations; Director of the W.F. Albright Institute of Archaeological Research, Jerusalem; editor of the Bulletin of the American Schools of Oriental Research, as well as senior or section editor for the Anchor Bible Dictionary, the Oxford Encyclopedia of Near Eastern Archaeology, and Women in Archaeology: The Classical World and the Near East; Vice-President of the American Schools of Oriental Research and the Cyprus-American Archaeological Research Institute; Chair of the Publications Committee of the Archaeological Institute of America; and member of the editorial boards of Biblical Archaeologist, Journal of Mediterranean Archaeology, American Journal of Archaeology, Archaeology, and Archaeology Odyssey.

Dr. Dever has given 15 endowed college lectureships (not including our scholar-in-residence lectureship last fall) and has been invited to lecture at more than 40 regional, national, and international symposia and annual professional meetings. He has authored, co-authored, or edited 19 books and monographs, and written 70 book chapters and over 100 articles for professional journals and Bible and archaeology dictionaries and encyclopedias.

In short, more significantly than anyone else in North America, Dr. Dever has shaped the course and direction of American archaeology in the Eastern Mediterranean and Near East regions for the past forty years. And he started his career with a B.A. from a then-unaccredited Bible college in Milligan College, Tennessee.

U.S. Army Reserve Officers Training Corps Program (ROTC)

The Army R.O.T.C. Military Science is a four-year program divided into a basic course given during the freshman and sophomore years and an advanced course given during the junior and senior years. Students enrolled in the advanced course receive a monthly, non-taxable stipend of $1,000. One course each in written communication, computer proficiency, and military history will fulfill the professional military education requirements. Students successfully completing the advanced course and advanced summer camp between the junior and senior years will qualify for a commission as a Second Lieutenant in the United States Army upon graduation, and will incur a service obligation in the active Army or Army Reserves.

Lycoming Warriors

Head Coach

Frank Girardi

Frank Girardi will enter his 34th year at the helm of the Lycoming College football program in 2005. He has become a legend in his field by building one of the most respected and consistently successful NCAA Division III football programs in the nation.

In his 33 seasons at Lycoming, Girardi has built a career record of 244-81-5 – a winning percentage of .747. He is one of only four active coaches at the Division III level to record 200 victories and one of only 12 active coaches at all levels of the NCAA to reach the milestone.

Warrior teams coached by Girardi have won 13 Middle Atlantic Conference championships and made 11 appearances in the NCAA playoffs, including trips to the Stagg Bowl, the Division III national championship game, in 1990 and 1997. Lycoming has tallied a winning record in 29 of Girardi's 33 seasons as head coach.

His accomplishments and consistency have not gone unnoticed by others. Girardi is a member of three halls of fame, including the West Branch Valley Hall of Fame, the Pennsylvania State Sports Hall of Fame, and West Chester University's W. Glenn Killinger Football Hall of Fame. The Middle Atlantic Conference has honored Girardi as their Coach of the Year on 12 occasions, and in 1999 he became the Robert W. Maxwell Football Club's first recipient of their Tri-State Coach of the Year Award.

Lycoming College's Warrior head coach Frank Girardi announced the captains for the 2005 season.

Matt Mangold and Lucas Baltz will captain the offense, and Luke Sterling and Mike Kozak will captain the defense.

Warrior Volleyball Closes Season as MAC Champions.

On Saturday, November 6, 2004, our Warrior volleyball team hosted FDU-Florham for the Freedom Conference Championships. The match was back-and-forth throughout, but the Warriors came back after being down two games to one and outlasted the Devils to win in five games. Lycoming won the first game 33-31, the fourth game 31-29 and the fifth game 15-12. FDU won the second and third games by scores of 30-25 and 30-22, respectively. The Warriors improved to 16-19 and claimed their fifth Freedom Conference title.

Lindsey Artz led the Warriors with 24 kills and three blocks. Kelli Watson added 22 kills and 19 digs. Jana Reitz tallied a team-high 20 digs while contributing 10 kill and Seneca Reilly recorded 53 assists in the match.

By winning the Freedom Conference, Lycoming received an automatic bid to the NCAA Division III Volleyball Championship tournament, which was held at Gettysburg College. Lycoming played Eastern College in the first round, and unfortunately fell in four games with the scores of 28-30, 30-23, 20-30, and 23-30.

The Warriors will be losing three starters next year, due to graduation. The three are setter Seneca Reilly, hitter Kelli Watson, and offensive and defensive specialist Jana Reitz.

WARRIOR MEN'S LACROSSE SEASON ENDS IN SEMIFINALS

The Lycoming College men's lacrosse team had their season come to an end in the semifinals of the Middle Atlantic Conference playoffs at Widener University. The Warriors had difficulty solving the Pioneer defense, scoring just one goal through the first three periods before falling by a final score of 7-14. Lycoming ends the 2005 campaign with a mark of 10-6. Widener improves to 10-4 and will advance to the MAC Championship to face Messiah College.

Dave Kirschner led the Warriors with four goals and two assists in the game. James Cusick, Thomas Nairn, and Chris McQuade each added one goal. Chris Jordan recorded one assist.

Matt Lyons went the distance in goal for Lycoming. He made 15 saves while allowing 14 goals.

WARRIOR GOLFERS PLACE SECOND AT CONFERENCE CHAMPIONSHIPS

The Lycoming College men's golf team competed in the Freedom Conference Championships held at Hershey Country Club on April 30 and May 1. The Warriors placed second out of seven teams in the 36-hole event with a team score of 664 - 332 on each day of the competition.

Jim Bechtel (Jr./Muncy Valley, Pa.; Sullivan County) and Jordan Isenberg (So./South Williamsport, Pa.; South Williamsport) finished tied for second-place overall with rounds of 161. Bechtel shot 81 on Saturday and 80 on Sunday. Isenberg recorded identical scores on opposite days with a first-round score of 80 and a second-round score of 81. Both players were named first-team All-Freedom Conference for finishing in the top five.

Coming in third for Lycoming was Jason Jones (Jr./Gaithersburg, Md.; Damascus) with a score of 170 - carding an 85 in both rounds. Jim Wool (Jr./Cogan Station, Pa.; Williamsport) rounded out the Warriors' team score with a two-day total of 172 - 86 in each round. Also competing for Lycoming was Jim Davidson (So./Fairport, N.Y.; Fairport) who recorded a score of 178 for the tournament.

Student org.

Lycoming College's Black Student Union is back this year and the goal is still the same. BSU held a silent auction where members of BSU auctioned their time to any willing bidders. Examples were: Dinner and a movie, cleaning of one's room, laundry, etc. This event was a huge success as the group made $55 to go towards other endeavours the group might come up with.

The Black Student Union meets every other Wednesday at 9 p.m. in the board room of third floor, Wertz Building. We discuss any new activities we might be able to participate in while also trying to promote diversity through whatever we do. We also discuss ways to further unify our group and to also gain more members.

Global meets at 6 p.m. every Wednesday in the Skeath Lounge (basement of the AC in room B9). Meetings are held in a relatively private place, where support is offered by both students and faculty. Meetings usually last one hour and are open to both faculty and students every week except the first Wednesday of every month. Meetings on the first Wednesday of the month are open to students only. The meetings are typically student run with advice and involvement from faculty. For further information please feel free to contact either our faculty advisor or a member of Global.

org.

GLOBAL is an organization on campus for those who identify themselves as Gay, Lesbian or Bisexual. Others can join as well and become allies.

Awareness Group

*"Big or small town, different state or country.
What difference does it make? It's all Multi-Cultural."*

Arts

Creative Arts Society (CAS) serves as a social organization for students having an interest in creative arts (audio, visual, and performance). CAS sponsors trips to museums and performances. Membership is open to all students regardless of major/minor. The advisor is Roger D. Shipley .

The Creative Art Society, also known as CAS, sponsors a lot of fun events on campus. We are located on first floor Williams and have our own lounge. In the lounge, there are wall to wall flats in which members are encouraged to paint on and show their artistic sides. Not only are members allowed to paint flats, but those members who live on the floor are allowed to paint their doors.

Some featured yearly events are Video Game Night in which the lounge becomes an entourage of video game consoles, TVs, and people having a blast. Flat Painting Parties in which members get together and paint anything they want from 80's TV show characters to abstracts. And there's our yearly community service project to Little Pine State Park in which the society members put on a puppet show and do face-painting for the local kids.

Requirements to join: Must be a Lycoming student and be willing to have fun! Major Types: All Kinds! 121

Criminal Justice

U.S. Army Reserve Officers Training Corps Program (R.O.T.C.) program provides an opportunity for Lycoming students to enroll in Army R.O.T.C. Lycoming notes enrollment in and successful completion of the program on student transcripts.

Military Science is a four-year program divided into a basic course given during the freshman and sophomore years and an advanced course given during the junior and senior years. Students who have not completed the basic course may qualify for the advanced course by completing the Leader's Training Course at Fort Knox, Kentucky between the sophomore and junior years.

One course each in written communication, computer proficiency, and military history will fulfill the professional military education requirements.

Students successfully completing the advanced course and The Leadership Development and Assessment Course between the junior and senior years will qualify for a commission as a Second Lieutenant in the United States Army upon graduation, and will incur a service obligation in the active Army, Army National Guard or the Army Reserves.

Activities Board

The Campus Activities Board (CAB) is in cooperation with the Office of Student Programs and Leadership Development. The Campus Activities Board plans and implements student activities such as concerts, comedians, dinner theaters, movies and musical performances. Membership in CAB is open to all Lycoming College students. All active members have voting privileges within the organization. The president is Jennifer A. Delp; the advisor is Lawrence Maniolinni.

The Lycoming College Choir is a university choir that performs regularly in the United States. The choir is based at Lycoming College, which is a four-year private college in Williamsport, Pennsylvania, USA. The Lycoming College Choir's annual schedule includes fall performances at Freshman Convocation, an open rehearsal and Sunday morning service during Family Weekend, and the Christmas Candlelight Service. During Graduation Weekend in May, the choir performs at Baccalaureate, at the Graduation Concert, and at Commencement. The Choir also gives annual performances during Sunday services at Williamsport-area churches, including First United Methodist, Pine Street United Methodist, and St. John's United Methodist.

Choir

The College Choir is the largest of three choral groups at Lycoming. It is the college's "full choir" and has numbers nearing 150 students. It is open to students from all academic fields. Auditions, to determine voice parts only, are held each September. The Choir is open to every student who loves to sing.

Like the other Lycoming choirs, members of the Tour Choir are students from every academic field and major. Members are chosen for their abilities to be cooperative and dedicated as much as for their musical talents. Since the Lycoming Choir's inception in 1947, the choir has toured in many parts of the United States during its annual "spring break" tour. In the past five years alone, the Tour Choir has visited New England, Florida, Georgia, and North and South Carolina, and has flown to California twice. The choir's 2005 schedule includes performances in Pennsylvania, New Jersey, and New York, and a 10-day concert tour throughout Georgia and the Carolinas.

Choir

The Tour Choir is an ensemble of about 40 students who are selected by audition each November. The Tour Choir begins rehearsals in January, and its annual tour schedule includes two weekend tours and a 10-day concert tour over spring break. The Tour Choir also performs a "Homecoming Concert" at Lycoming College after its spring break tour, as well as appears during the Graduation Concert. Every three or four years, the Tour Choir conducts a two-week tour abroad in addition to its yearly activities.

Choir

The Chamber Choir is comprised of about 25 students who are chosen by audition from the larger College Choir. Members of the Chamber Choir are selected primarily for their vocal abilities, and each is a recipient of a Choral Fellowship, receiving an annually renewable $500 tuition remission. Like the other choirs, the Chamber Choir is comprised of students from all academic fields and majors.

The Chamber Choir's repertoire is diverse, including everything from large-scale choral works to vocal jazz. For example, in past years the Chamber Choir has performed everything from Mendelssohn's Elijah to Lerner-Loewe's If Ever I Would Leave You and Kern's All the Things You Are. The Lycoming College Chamber Choir's annual schedule includes performances at the Family Weekend Concert, Homecoming Weekend Sunday service, the Lycoming Faculty Christmas dinner, and the Graduation Concert. The Chamber Choir's focus each spring is its formal concert presentation of a "master work," which has in past years included Bach's St. John Passion and Handel's The Creation. Often the most flexible of the Lycoming choirs because of its size, the Chamber Choir has had the opportunity to participate in many special performances over the past few years. In fall 1996, they sang backup for Barry Manilow during his concert in Williamsport; at Christmas 1996 and 1999, they performed at the White House; and they have performed joint concerts with the Chieftains and the Gregg Smith Singers.

Band

Lycoming College Concert Band conducted by Christopher Woodruff is an ensemble of approximately 66 members, comprised of woodwind, brass, and percussion players who perform wind band literature. The band performs five times annually on campus. In addition, the ensemble tours at the end of the spring semester. Membership is open to all campus students by audition.

Band

In the fall of 2002 the Lycoming College Jazz Ensemble was formed. The group is selected from the membership of the Concert Band and rehearses twice a week during the regular semester. Since its debut performance in the spring of 2003, the Jazz Ensemble has held concerts in a variety of different genres of Jazz, including swing and salsa, and has featured guest performers such as jazz saxophonist and Lycoming alumnus Richard Adams, recording artist Tim Breon, known throughout the region for his bass and guitar stylings, and alumnus Dick Adams, a local saxophonist.

Service Scholars are selected annually based on an application process. Once chosen, each scholar must work six hours per week throughout the academic year. Upon successful completion of the term service, the student will receive a scholarship award. The service scholar must maintain a 2.5 grade point average and an evaluation will be done at the end of the student's term of of service for the awarding of the scholarship for the following year. The student scholar works under the supervision of Lycoming's Community Service Director, Marco Hunsberger.

Campus Ministries

The United Campus Ministry is committed to loving our campus by building relationships with the people we interact with, to help each other in our walk with God.

Campus Ministry provides many opportunities for students to talk, find friends, share their concerns, work out their faith, or put their faith into action with a variety of people.

Philosophy of United Campus Ministry

Campus Ministry springs from the premise that faith cannot be reduced to psychological or sociological processes. Faith is a verb...a capacity to live at more than a mundane level: to see, to feel, to act in terms of a transcendent dimension. At Lycoming College we affirm religious traditions as gifts which encourage the development of faith. In agreement with James Fowler we understand faith broadly as "the human struggle for identity, community and meaning," which is critical at the time when the late adolescent moves into adulthood. In the faith development process we respect that all people develop faith at different levels and times. Real faith is not a matter of age or style. We believe that faith is the pivotal point to a holistic approach to life.

Habitat for Humanity, a worldwide organization that seeks to eliminate poverty housing, has fundraisers, including the Habitat 5 K fun run, lemonade and cappuccino sales at football games, as well as personal sponsors, to help raise money for both the collegiate challenge spring break trip to Los Lunas, New Mexico, as well as funding for the completion of Habitat's first Collegiate build.

Forty-one students and chaperones in Lycoming College's chapter of Habitat for Humanity flew to Los Lunas, N.M., on break and worked with Habitat for Humanity of Valencia County to make a family's dreams come true. A couple of days before the students arrived; the Valencia Habitat chapter was robbed of everything. When the community found out, residents pulled together and donated tools and supplies because they knew the group was coming to build. A group of women from a local church cooked a delicious lunch for the students every day on site, and on Friday the students got a special treat because the homeowners brought some authentic Mexican food and desserts to sample.

Student Senate

The Student Senate of Lycoming College (SSLC) is the official student governing body of the College. SSLC is the final, legitimate, and representative voice of the students and is recognized by the administration as the official voice of students. Student grievances, needs, and desires should be taken to SSLC for effective communication with the administration. A major function of SSLC is the appointment of student representatives to campus committees that play important roles in Lycoming policy making. President is Emily Lubold. Advisor is Mr. Lawrence P. Mannolini III.

Arrow

The yearbook is an organization that strives to provide an accurate and lively portrayal of campus activities, and to capture the memories of the campus for those who want to look back on their college life in the future. We are very thankful for the enthusiasm of the students who are actively supporting us. Our advisor is Robin Van Auken and the editor is Jennifer Wray. The rest of our staff includes: Sara Crabtree, Laura Holdredge, Jennifer Moran, Dana Dunn, Bryan Makos, Morgan Graham, Molly Martin, Joseph Mazziotta, Katie Willard, Patrease Smith, Elaine Seward, and Kristina Small. The Arrow is in its second year of being handled by the Communications department. We hope that our communication skills enhance the yearbook, bringing into it the high-tech world that we now live in. We are always welcoming help from the college community, whether it is actually doing hands on work for the yearbook or providing us with information and pictures.

Lycourier

The Lycourier is the non-profit student newspaper of Lycoming College. The Lycourier is a bi-weekly award-winning college publication, which is a completely student-run operation. Each week the executive staff members meet to discuss story ideas as well as fund-raising and public relations events. The meetings are held at 9 p.m. every Thursday night in the Mass Communications Building. The Lycourier welcomes any student, regardless of major, who is willing to work hard and is interested in learning more about journalism. The current staff consists of 15 executive members and 35 general staff members for a total of 50 staff members.

Primarily, The Lycourier covers the top news stories of Lycoming College news, but also covers other areas of interest to students, such as Greeks, sports, entertainment and the arts and opinion. While the primary audience is the Lycoming College campus, The Lycourier also covers both local and national news stories and has a subscription base of nearly 200.

WRLC 91.7FM is Lycoming's campus radio station and is staffed by students interested in radio broadcasting. WRLC broadcasts from the Communications building on Lycoming College campus.

The station broadcasts 768 watts at 91.7MhZ. The staff consists of student DJs, from all academic backgrounds, during the week, and some from the community on weekends. The station can be heard within an approximate 15-mile radius, depending on conditions and terrain. The week-day broadcast begins at midnight and continues in two-hour shifts until 2 a.m.

On Saturdays during the fall, you could catch all of the Lycoming College Warriors football games on WRLC. Throughout the summer, WRLC broadcasts the games for the Williamsport Crosscutters baseball team. The station prides itself on programming that is both unique and diverse. Student DJs play their favorite genres, which culminates in a good variety including Rock, Alternative, R&B, Punk, Country and more!

Broadcasting Society

National Broadcasting Society, NBS, is open to all students with an interest in the communications field, this society offers leadership, community service, and philanthropic opportunities dealing with all forms of communications. Students will gain experience in print media, public speaking, and electronic media by participating in different events planned to educate students about communications' careers and help with job searches. As a member of The National Broadcasting Society, students may also be eligible to be a member of Alpha Epsilon Rho, the communications honor society. The president is Allison Shok and the advisor is Dr. Steven C. Koehn.

The National Broadcasting Society and Alpha Epsilon Rho were formed on the campus of Stephens College in Missouri in 1943. It was originally called Alpha Epsilon Rho in honor of the Association for Education in Radio (AER) which the organization met in convention with in Columbus, Ohio for many years. The National Broadcasting Society has as its purpose to enhance the development of college and university students involved in broadcasting, cable, telecommunications and other electronic media Alpha Epsilon Rho is the honor society within the National Broadcasting Society. Its membership is restricted to the "best of the best" found within the membership ranks of NBS.

Circle K International exists to meet the personal needs of the individual collegian through the qualities of leadership, the rewards of service, and the unique spirit of friendship. The advisor is Jeffrey E. Klein.

History of Big Brothers, Big Sisters

In 1903, Irvin Westheimer, a 23-year-old businessman in Cincinnati saw a young boy and his dog scavenging through trash cans for food. Compelled by the sight of this boy, Irvin introduced himself and gave him a decent meal. He learned the boy's name was Tom, and that he was one of five children in a single-parent home.

When Westheimer met Tom's mom and saw the impoverished state the family was in, he asked for permission to take Tom out on various outings. Tom's mom consented, and soon he became a trusted mentor for the youth. Westheimer went on to found the Big Brother Association of Cincinnati in 1910.

Meanwhile, in 1904, Ernest Coulter, New York newspaperman who left journalism to work in the city's first children's court, started his own crusade to foster adult-youth who came through his courts. Coulter became increasingly appalled by the suffering and misery displayed by the thousands of children who passed through the court every year. The two joined.

Planning for the first national Big Brothers and Big Sisters organizations began in 1914. The first federation got under way in 1921, but it was short lived. During the Great Depression, the federation dissolved and would not emerge again until the 1950s. In 1958 the United States Congress officially chartered a newly formed Big Brother of America. Then, in 1970, Big Sisters International was chartered. These two organizations would merge in 1977 to form Big Brothers Big Sisters of America, establishing the national headquarters in Philadelphia. By 1994, the BBBSA federation had matched 75,000 children from single-parent homes with caring adult volunteers through more than 500 agencies in all 50 states.

From recruitment activities to Halloween and Christmas parties, Bigs know how to show their Lil' Sibs fun. The mission of Big Brothers/Big Sisters is to provide a community resource for children at risk and in need of a positive role model to support their growth and development. Through one-to-one matches, the Lycoming College student volunteers help these children enhance their self-esteem, personal safety and study skills, and set goals for the future.

Individuals with mild to moderate intellectual disabilities and those without disabilities who would like to share in a mutually enriching friendship are eligible.

Best Buddies in the front row are Jill, Dana Dunn, Devon and Gina. Second row, are Margaretann Mulcahy, Ashley Campbell, Jim, Lea, Mindy Dicken, Darlene Holt, Ellen Furman and Michele Connors. Not shown are members Tiffany Zappulla, Nancy Villante, Adara Vernacchio, Tonya Reed, Shawna Snyder, Denise Poremba, Erica Likens and Erin Dunleavy.

Best Buddies is a non-profit organization dedicated to enhancing the lives of people with intellectual disabilities by providing opportunities for one-to-one friendships and integrated employment. Founded in 1989 by Anthony K. Shriver, Best Buddies is a vibrant, international organization that has grown from one original chapter to more than 1,000 middle school, high school, and college campuses across the country and internationally. Our programs today reach all 50 of the United States, and Best Buddies has active international programs in Canada, Colombia, Cuba, Egypt, Greece, Ireland, Mexico, the Philippines and Sweden; with additional programs under development in Australia, Austria, Denmark, Hong Kong, New Zealand, Saudi Arabia, South Africa, Spain, Turkey and the United Kingdom. Best Buddies helps people with intellectual disabilities connect with others through technology with its online friendship program, e-Buddies.

Lycoming Environmental Awareness Foundation (LEAF) promotes environmental awareness on the Lycoming College campus through the use of educational programs, local field activities, and outdoor recreation.

Board

Recreation Board of Lycoming College

- An organization providing a recreational environment that will supplement the students' academic pursuit enabling them to achieve a healthier lifestyle and maximize their total college experience by planning programs for the Recreation Center.

President: Erin K. George

Advisor: Mrs. Laura Johnson

Republicans

Lycoming College Republicans is affiliated with the College Republicans of America, this organization works to further the ideals of the Republican Party while educating students about the political system. The president is Luis G. Hernandez; the advisor is Dr. Michael G. Roskin. Election Day 2004 lasted 23½ hour for Luis Hernandez, president of the Lycoming College Republicans. Up at 5:00 a.m. that day to help out at the polls, he ended the day at 4:30 a.m. the next morning when Ohio and Florida were safely in the red zone for President George W. Bush. Hernandez, a junior political science major, transferred into Lycoming College his sophomore year to find just three people in the College Republicans organization. "You get to be president," one of the three members told Luis, and so he was.

Democrats

Lycoming College Democrats work to promote student participation and interest in local, state, and national politics.

The club's primary background is the philosophy of the Democratic Party, but it encourages all students to learn more about leadership, volunteering, and voting. Members assist candidates, discuss issues, meet speakers, and work at convincing everyone on campus that participating in our community and government is important and fun.

The president is Michele Connors; the advisor is Jane C. Keller.

The Juggling Club is for those students who are interested in juggling, but don't know how.

It is a friendly, fun club and all are welcome. The club holds its meetings in the basement of Clarke Chapel in United Campus Ministry.

Juggling Club

Roller Hockey

Lycoming College Roller Hockey is a club sport that strives to develop sportsmanship and team skills as well as to provide student participation in an athletic event.

President: Brian M. Dowling
Advisor: Mrs. Janice L. Ogurcak

Club

The Equestrian Club is a recent addition to Lycoming's Student Senate of organizations. They welcome horse lovers of any background or skill level, from first time riders to experienced competitors, English or Western. Open riding clinics for students have been a fun and successful experiment this year. They are planning trips to nearby events such as clinics and expos. More group riding events will hopefully be on their agenda, too!

The club's main base is Moonstruck Hill Farm at Rose Valley Horse Ranch in Rose Valley, PA, located about 15 miles north of Williamsport.

SAHD is an organization at Lycoming headed by students and faculty, with the mission to serve students and faculty. SAHD's main goal is to promote healthy decisions. Many high schools have programs like ours, but a majority of them focus only on drinking. Here at Lyco, SAHD focuses on a wide range of healthy decisions concerning drinking, smoking, and drug use to name a few. They also help promote awareness about other issues such as rape, stress, and even sleep deprivation. SAHD does a lot of things, such as Coffeehouses, Mock tail tables, Rafting trips, driving go karts on the quad with beer goggles on, Respect Day tables in the AC, Halloween parties, Safe-sex parties, massage sessions, and tons more.

(Alpha Gamma Chapter)

The National Greek Academic Honor Society was founded to promote intellectual interaction between Greek students and the academic community. The purpose of the Society is to promote the advancement of education among Greeks, to instill a greater spirit of cooperation among Greek students and organizations, and to encourage excellence in scholarship.

In 1989, a group of scholastic achievers at the University of Southern California, representing various Greek fraternities and sororities joined together to create an organization dedicated to the advancement of higher education and academic accomplishment. The Alpha chapter of Gamma Sigma Alpha was founded on November 9, 1989, as a result of these students' efforts. The national board was established the following year to promote the Society's ideals on campuses across the country.

The Founder's Creed

I Believe in Democracy... a democracy characterized by the practice of justice in every relation of life. I hold that justice is the foremost principle to be considered in making my decisions as a voting member of Phi Mu Delta, the student body, and as a citizen of the United States. I believe in that broad conception of democracy which seeks freedom of opportunity, and recognizes no color, race, creed, or position.

I Believe in Service... service to the college; service to every group organized for the common good; service to the individual. I believe in service defined in the terms of voluntary sacrifice for the welfare of those with whom I come in contact.

I Believe in Brotherhood... Brotherhood that reaches beyond the limits of Phi Mu Delta and welcomes every man as my Brother. I believe in the intrinsic worth of the man at my side, and in his ability to make good and justify my faith in him. I hold these beliefs as my profound conviction, and I pledge my fellow men to live up to them to the best of my ability.

At Williamsport Dickinson Seminary (then a preparatory school, now Lycoming College) in Williamsport, PA., the Alpha Chapter of Theta Pi Pi was organized. In the original Theta Pi Pi Constitution 593 brothers inscribed their names. Originally largely a literary society, Theta Pi Pi soon developed into a social union, devoted to stimulating among its members the highest possible levels of achievement in all their endeavors. By 1920, chapters had been established at Bucknell Academy, Kiski Preparatory School and East Liberty and Shadyside Academics.

Inactive only during World War II, Theta Pi Pi at Lycoming owes much to the Rev. Harry C. Stenger, alumni secretary, who kept the chapter alive during the war and was the great help in its re-activation in 1946. With the growth of the seminary into a junior college and, in 1948, into a four-year college, Alpha Chapter of Theta Pi Pi began to think of national affiliation. In the summer of 1951, C. Scott Wilhelm and Paul Sabin made a contact with Kappa Delta Rho and on September 3, 1951, Theta Pi Pi became KDR's Psi Colony. For a year and a half the Colony worked to prove itself to the National, and on May 30, 1953, under the untiring sponsorship of Iota Chapter, the Colony was chartered as Psi Chapter of Kappa Delta Rho. In the time since Psi was chartered, the chapter members have been unusually active in leadership of the Student Government, the religious activities, and the Interfraternity Council at Lycoming. Living in a section of one of the college dormitories until 1955, the Chapter in the Fall of that year moved into a college owned house which the group can call its fraternity home. Although still new as KDR to Lycoming and Williamsport, Psi looks forward to assuming a very active role in its local and national responsibilities.

THE CREED

We believe in Lambda Chi Alpha and its traditions, principles and ideals.

The crescent is our symbol: pure, high, ever growing, and the cross is our guide: denoting service, sacrifice, and even suffering and humiliation before the world, bravely endured if need be, in following that ideal.

May we have faith in Lambda Chi Alpha and passion for its welfare.

May we have hope for the future of Lambda Chi Alpha and strength to fight for its teachings.

May we have pure hearts that we may approach the ideal of perfect brotherly love

Chi Alpha

Lambda Chi Alpha brothers take pride in being in the oldest international fraternity on campus. They believe in upholding the ideals and principles of the fraternity and to live in brotherly love.

Fraternity Colors: Purple, Green, and Gold.

Fraternity Flower: White rose

The Four Aspects of Lambda Chi Alpha

1. Fraternity
2. Patriotism
3. Learning (Education)
4. Religion (Morality)

The Three Open Mottos of Lambda Chi Alpha

1. Vir Quesque Vir—Every Man a Man
2. Per Cruce[m] Crescens—The Cross and the Crescent
3. Chalepa Ta Kala—Naught Without Labor

Iota-Beta Zeta Local History

Founded: May 16, 1953

Conclave: Atlantic

There are currently 825 brothers in our chapter.

Phi Kappa Psi
Fraternity

As the newest fraternity on campus, the brothers of Phi Kappa Psi have proven themselves as being truly dedicated to community service.

Psi

On March 7th 2002, following months of hard work and preparation, the members of Pennsylvania Phi were officially recognized as a colony of Phi Kappa Psi at Lycoming College.

Since the date of their colonization, Penn Phi has continued setting the groundwork that will allow their colony to grow. One of their goals as a colony was to be exceedingly service oriented, which they found in Phi Psi, and they wasted little time doing so. From the beginning of second semester, until graduation in May, Penn Phi amassed over 500 hours of community service with such programs as Habitat for Humanity, AIDS Resource, and an Animal Menagerie for wild and endangered animals. During their first full semester as a colony, Penn Phi was actively involved in community service, student activities as well as intramural sports.

Epsilon

The Mu-Theta Chapter of Tau Kappa Epsilon is one of over 200 TKE Chapters throughout the world. Founded in 1899, TKE has grown substantially, undergoing many changes and exposing numerous men to the greatness of TKE along the way.

With the hard work and dedication of men like Dale Keller Erdly and David Morgan, TKE was brought to Lycoming College on April 12th, 1969. Every year, as new men are inducted or others graduate, a piece of history is being added. Every brother brings to the organization different views, cultural backgrounds and opinions. More importantly, every brother leaves with certain memories; this is what truly makes them a brotherhood ... for life

The brothers make it a point to participate in various service projects including a haunted house, carwashes, walks and runs for AIDS, faculty and student lockup, and even humorous events like a "pie in the face" charity event. They find it essential to give something back to the community, and they try to help people who are less fortunate than themselves.

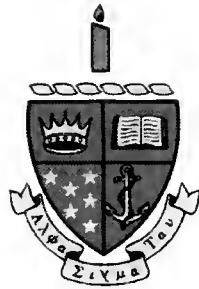

Rho has grown to have a membership role of over 316 sisters over the past twenty four years. The sisterhood was founded on the principles of unity, loyalty, individuality, and respect because without these there can be no lasting bond. They strive to maintain these values while enhancing scholarship within the sisterhood as well as service throughout the community. Alpha Rho believes in accepting people as they are, free of judgment. Every sister is a unique individual that contributes to the sisterhood in her own way. The flower is the American Beauty Rose and the motto is "Hang the trifle, woman. Take thee honor!" by William Shakespeare.

Alpha Rho is active in many service endeavors. Along with their traditional Adopt-A-Highway, some of the things they have participated in are: the "Take Back the Night" march, the "Clothes Line" project, volunteering at the Salvation Army, making Christmas cards for children at the Danville Hospital Children's Department, crocheting items for the cancer society, volunteering at the YWCA, and helping with the AIDS Resource Center in Williamsport. They are also involved with the campus and community risk management, distributing pamphlets on addiction awareness and AIDS and most recently helping with the research and fundraising for the Domestic Violence project, organized by Lynn Estomin. They also run the "Quarter Mile of Quarters" project to raise funds for the Joe Young Memorial Scholarship, who was the brother of alumni sister, Holly Young.

Omega

Sigma Tau

Alpha Sigma Tau was established at Lycoming College in 1991. At AST, each sister is unique. This sorority gives girls the opportunity to form a special sisterly bond. Alpha Sigma Tau is a sisterhood and a friendship for a lifetime. From its beginning in 1899 to today the purpose of Alpha Sigma Tau is to promote the ethical, cultural, and social development of its members and have members maintain high standards of scholarship, friendship and social grace. From taking classes to providing community service to many organizations, you are always able to find an AST sister anywhere helping to lend a hand to the campus. Some of the many activities that the sisters of

The mission of Alpha Xi Delta Fraternity is to enrich the life of every Alpha Xi Delta. Alpha Xi Delta was founded in 1893 by ten young women at Lombard College in Galesburg, Illinois, who shared a vision and a dream of a national organization dedicated to the personal growth of women.

Delta

Since that time more than a 100 years ago, the spirit of Alpha Xi Delta has enriched the lives of thousands of women throughout the world with its emphasis on lifelong learning and lasting friendship. Now a national fraternity with more than 120,000 initiated members, Alpha Xi Delta has grown into a progressive and forward-thinking organization with college chapters and alumnae associations throughout the United States. The ideals envisioned by their Founders are timeless and have remained constant throughout the years, inspiring pride in each member to pursue individual excellence.

The mission of Alpha Xi Delta Fraternity is to enrich the life of every Alpha Xi Delta. They nurture unity and cooperation, foster intellectual, professional, and personal growth, exemplify the highest ethical conduct, instill community responsibility, and perpetuate fraternal growth.

As of April 17, Alpha Xi Delta officially is a chartered Greek organization on campus. The process to reach this point started several years ago with the formation of a Sorority Interest Group (SIG). Last year, the group became an official colony of Alpha Xi Delta. It is the first sorority to become national since Alpha Sigma Tau in 1991.

Lycoming's chapter of Alpha Xi Delta is officially named the Iota Mu chapter. As a developed chapter the women plan to continue making an impact at Lycoming and in the Williamsport community. Their goals include: continue community service, maintain high academic standards and further the personal growth of members.

Gamma

Beta Phi Gamma is the oldest sorority at Lycoming College. The girls of BPG enjoy taking time to help with community service projects. The motto of the sisters of Beta Phi Gamma is: "Do not go where the path may lead, Go where there is no path and leave a trail." Their saying: First and forever, we'll always be together. Their colors are light blue, white, and purple. They also helped to found Gamma Delta Sigma, another local sorority at Lycoming College. Some of the service projects they do are the "Join the Fight Night" sponsored by American Cancer Society in Williamsport, participated in Lycoming College's Clothesline Project, the American Red Cross Blood Drive at Lycoming College, Hand in Hand Festival, collaborated with Phi Mu Delta to sponsor a campus wide service project, the Salvation Army's Angel Tree Project.

Throughout the semester, many sisters of Beta Phi Gamma volunteered their time on their own and not solely with the sorority. Some of these services consist of: Circle K, Float , Habitat 5K Run, Habitat for Humanity, and Baby-sitting at a local Church.

Delta Sigma

Gamma Delta Sigma is a local sorority located at Lycoming College and is dedicated to academics and the community. GDS consists of a friendly, outgoing, and diverse group of girls. GDS strives to uphold the founding morals and values that were established 28 years ago. Their founding date is November 7, 1977. The colors are Dark Blue, Yellow, and Green. The flower is a Daisy The mascot is the "Delt" Duck and the motto is "Love and Daisies." Their Advisor is Jennifer Wilson, the Delt dudes were Adam Shope & Garrett Zoschg and the social sisters were Jennie Shaffer & Beth Weixel.

Faculty and Staff 2005

Faculty Accomplishments

Dr. Rachael Hungerford and Dr. Eileen Peluso received Lycoming's top teaching awards at the College's Honors Convocation on April 10.

Dr. Rachael Hungerford, assistant professor of education, received the Constance Cupp Plankenhorn Alumni Teaching Award, which is given to a senior faculty member. She joined the faculty in 1989 and teaches courses in elementary education and women's studies. Her area of specialty is children's literature. She is co-editor of the book Journeying: Children Responding to Literature, and has written a number of professional articles.

Dr. Eileen Peluso, associate professor of mathematical sciences, received the Junior Faculty Teaching Award for teaching excellence by a faculty member who has been on the Lycoming College faculty fewer than 10 years. Dr. Peluso joined the Lycoming faculty in 1998 after a career as a programmer analyst and a research engineer. She teaches computer science and mathematics and has had a number of professional papers published.

NICK SCHNEIDER

Nick,
On your first day of kindergarten we saw our shy little boy enter school with apprehension. Your school years have flown by, and you have had many accomplishments along the way. We are now watching you graduate from college as a mature and confident young man. You have always made us very proud of you, and all your hard work and dedication. Thank you for being the wonderful son you are.

CONGRATULATIONS ON A JOB WELL DONE!

— Remember — Be a leader, not a follower, and always keep reaching, and never settle.

Love always,

KYLE BARTZ

Adrienne,

We knew you could!
And you knew it too —
That you'd come out on top
After all you've been through.
And from here you'll go farther
And see brand-new sights,
You'll face brand-new hills
That rise to new heights.

It is hard to imagine that four years have gone by; four years of friendships, lessons learned, goals sought and life lived.

Coming to Lycoming we all had one end goal in mind--Graduation, but how we all achieve this goal is where our stories differ. As students of a liberal arts college we are encouraged to dabble into multiple aspects of academia. By seeking various means to further enhance ourselves we are challenged mentally, pushed to test our limitations and in the end rewarded with the knowledge that we survived. However, during our struggles and victories within our course loads we are aided by supportive faculty and staff; these individuals willingly give their personal time by aiding us in a difficult assignment, lending an open ear or providing a homemade dinner all for our betterment and well-being.

We the student body are not a number at Lyco, we are individuals with names and identities. From the moment we sought Lycoming, we are given individual attention; treated as young adults with wishes and desires, not just a dollar sign. By giving each student special attention, Lyco creates a community where "everyone knows your name." Living in such a community, faces have names, accomplishments are singled out and tragedies are pointed out. You never know the type of support that emerges from such a small environment until you are faced with these stages of life; suddenly your friends are your biggest fans and strangers provide an encouraging word when you least expect it.

Becoming involved within organizations, clubs, and committees has been the most rewarding aspect of my college career. I have found that you learn more about yourself when you encounter many facets of campus life, which generates lessons on how to interact with troubling, challenging, and new situations. For a small town, country girl like myself, I was exposed to a world that was not just black and white; suddenly I saw there were more than two paths to take in life. Opening yourself to opportunities that challenge your abilities as a leader prepares you for the real world, but more importantly you begin to enhance your own identity, finding what makes you, you. People you may never have spoken to our now your best friends, speaking in front of a crowd is no longer freighting, and juggling multiple tasks is a piece of cake. I quickly learned that there was more to college than sitting in a classroom.

As I leave Lycoming I cannot help but reflect on the friendships that I have made; I believe many students can relate when I say that I never imagined growing so close to people who were so different then myself. Besides taking away a college education, we take with us memories of friends that have changed our lives; these people left a lasting impression through the smallest means: their smile, laughter, or witty personality will never fade from our minds.

I depart "Camp Lyco" with one piece of advice, which is to realize what an amazing experience we are able to live for four years; cherish the friends that surround you, faculty that educates you, and staff that supports you. Furthermore, take every opportunity to become involved and see what success becomes of these interactions. Lastly, I leave you with this quote that I have held on to for a number of years- thank you Lycoming, I wish you all the memories that I am so blessed to take with me. God bless and good luck!

"Every experience God gives us, every person He puts in our lives, is the perfect preparation for the future that only He can see." - Corrie ten Boom

ARROW

T w o T h o u s a n d F i v e

The 320 copies of the 2005 Arrow Yearbook were printed and sold for a price of $50.00 each. The theme revolves around patriotism and the Lycoming Campus. The editors for the 2005 Arrow were Jennifer Wray and Robin VanAuken. Throughout the year the editors were assisted by Sara Crabtree, Laura Holdredge, Jennifer Moran, Dana Dunn, Bryan Makos, Morgan Graham, Molly Martin, Joseph Mazziotta, Katie Willard, Patrease Smith, Elaine Seward, and Kristina Small. Herff Jones Yearbooks in Gettysburg, Pennsylvania published the yearbook. The yearbook representative and general assistant to Lycoming College was Dave Brown. The 176 pages, 8 in color, were printed on 80 pound Bordeaux paper. DaVor Photographic Inc. provided photographic supplies and film development from Bensalem, Pennsylvania. DaVor staff photographers took the senior portraits. Student photographers, student organizations, faculty, and administrative staff submitted other photographs and copy. The yearbook staff created the 2005 Arrow Yearbook using Adobe Pagemaker 7.0, Adobe Photoshop, and the Gallery Electronic Library provided by Herff Jones. "Friends and Family" and business advertisements were solicited to offset the cost of the yearbook. Lycoming College and the Student Senate financially support the production of the yearbook. A special thank you goes out to Donna Weaver for her administrative assistance and to Rob Dietrich, Sports Information Director, for his assistance with photographic coverage and copy for varsity athletics.
